Data Protection Notice
The National Farmers Union Mutual Insurance Society Limited is the data controller and we will process personal information we obtain from you and from third parties in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. We may check and / or pass some or all of the personal information we obtain in connection with your insurance or claim to other insurance companies in order to administer the policy for underwriting and for claims handling purposes, to our appointed service providers and reinsurers, to regulatory or other organisations so that we can comply with our obligations and to databases and fraud prevention agencies. We may use your information to carry out research. It may be necessary to transfer your information to other companies outside the European Economic Area for any of the above purposes and / or for systems administration. We will take steps to ensure your privacy rights are protected. We may search the agencies and databases we have described to:

• help make decisions about the provision and administration of insurance and credit and related services for you and members of your household;
• trace debtors or beneficiaries, recover debt, prevent fraud and to manage your account and insurance policies;
• check your identity to prevent money laundering, unless you provide us with satisfactory proof of identity;
• in the event of any incident or claim, or at the time of renewal to validate your claims history or that of any other person or property likely to be involved in the policy or claim.

We can supply, on request, further information about the databases and agencies we have described.

You have a right to ask us for a copy of the personal information we hold about you if you apply to us in writing.

BBAC NFU Mutual Data Protection Notice.
The Data Protection Notice applies to the Contingency policy underwritten by NFU Mutual Insurance on behalf of BBAC members. The wording above appears in the policy.

NFU Mutual will receive a copy of the membership list for administration of the Contingency policy enabling us to deal with claims more effectively and to calculate premiums appropriate to membership levels.
